By donating to our organization, you are helping to help people with Sjögren's syndrome and their loved ones while supporting our mission. All donations received by the Association are used to develop and offer more services.

To fulfill its mission, the Association has four main objectives:

- each the largest number of people with Sjogren's syndrome;
- make available to them the most information about the syndrome;
- provide support and comfort to people with cancer and their loved ones to limit the harmful effects of the disease on their daily lives;
- raise donations to develop and provide more services to people with Sjogren and their loved ones.
